

National audition for Dansk Danseteater

Danish Dance Theatre (Dansk Danseteater), under the artistic direction of Marina Mascarell and based at the Opera House in Copenhagen, is seeking dancers to join our ensemble.

We are a company of 12 dancers of various ages and backgrounds, each playing an intrinsic role in our creative processes. Dance makers and other creatives collaborate with our ensemble over extended periods, fostering a deeply collaborative and innovative environment with the entire team of DDT. We typically have around two full-evening creations per season, with variations depending on collaborations with other institutions. Every creative process lasts between 3 to 4 months.

This national call is an open audition for dancers of either Danish nationality or dancers who have proof of address in Denmark. Through this open audition, we will pre-select dancers to participate in the international audition the following week.

Practical Information

Dates and times for the national audition: Sunday 8th December from 10-5pm.

Dates and times for the international audition: 14th and 15th of December from 10-5pm.

*all invited applicants will stay for both days.

Address: The Royal Opera House Ekvipagemestervej 10, 1438 Copenhagen.

different choreographers and enjoy engaging deeply in diverse practices without preconceived expectations. The ideal candidates will:

- Embrace a sense of belonging within a group and demonstrate full respect for all colleagues.
- Showcase strong improvisation skills and be capable of exploring the full range of the body's capabilities.
- Be team players who are patient, supportive, and bring positive energy to the studio.
- Possess a solid technical foundation (all techniques are welcome) and confidently express their unique qualities and singularities.
- Value collaboration and creativity, adding positively to the ensemble's dynamic.

Important Information

We train every morning in different techniques or practices, including ballet, contemporary, floor work, yoga, martial arts, urban styles, improvisation techniques, and more. If you are only interested in a single technique, see yourself solely as a soloist, or lack curiosity in exploring new forms, this may not be the right opportunity for you.

At Danish Dance Theatre, no choreographer works alone; dancers are an integral part of the creative team. We value a positive work environment and are looking for dancers who share this ethos. Dancers at DDT are not just performers but also teachers and creators.

If this sounds like a place where you can thrive and contribute, we encourage you to apply.

Please have the following materials ready to submit:

- Motivation Letter: Tell us why you want to join DDT and why you believe you would be a good fit for our ensemble. The motivation letter should be no longer than one page.
- 1'30 Improvisation Video: A continuous improvisation with no cuts or editing.
- CV: No longer than one page, highlighting relevant experience. If you have any other skills, please mention them in your CV.
- Trailer (Optional): If you have created a piece, feel free to include a trailer. Please don't send reels.
- Documentation: Proof of Danish nationality or address in Denmark (passport/driver's license/rental agreement/utility bills)
