ABOUT MINT COPENHAGEN

Mint Copenhagen is a Danish production company and creative media agency operating globally, specializing in campaigns for Kids, Youth, and Families. We thrive on developing innovative, effective campaigns that make an impact. Collaboration and strategic thinking are at the core of everything we do — with media planning and top-level client service playing a key role in delivering outstanding results.

ROLE OVERVIEW

As a Junior Creative Designer & Editor, you'll be part of a fast-paced team working on engaging visual storytelling across digital and traditional platforms. You'll contribute from idea to execution, bringing brands to life through static and dynamic assets.

Typical tasks include:

- Designing marketing assets (banners, carousels, presentations)
- Editing influencer content
- Supporting in-house productions
- Occasionally contributing to Mint Studios (e.g., concept visuals)
