

Oboe - The Norwegian Wind Ensemble

The Norwegian Wind Ensemble is seeking a new oboe player. We are looking for a versatile and curious musician who is comfortable moving between different roles within the section and is able to perform with stylistic conviction across all of our genres, from historical music to contemporary jazz.

Leadership on the podium is shared among the members of the section.

You should be a dedicated team player, willing to invest in not only the artistic development of our orchestra but also committed to taking an interest in the inner workings of our orchestra's democracy.

Real time music is one of the ensemble's focus areas. Candidates will be guided through an improvisation test as part of the audition process.
