About Stengade

Spillestedet Stengade is a progressive live music venue located in the heart of Nørrebro, Copenhagen, centred around our volunteer community. Each year, we host around 100 shows across a wide range of genres.

Passion for music is at the core of everything we do. In collaboration with our volunteers and our active board, Stengade is run by a small, dedicated staff team consisting of:

- A house technician & sound engineer
- A booking & PR manager
- An operations manager
- A production manager
- Alongside a team of part-time floor managers who are responsible for the execution of our shows and being the main point of contact for our community of volunteers on show nights. This is the role that you will be applying for.

Our Vision

Stengade aims to be a platform that offers professional musicians exposure while also serving as a learning environment for volunteers, emerging artists, and audiences.

About the Role – Floor Manager

As a floor manager, you play a central role for our volunteers and in the smooth operation of our concert nights. You are responsible for artist care, managing the evening's flow, supporting volunteers, and maintaining a great atmosphere and community feeling.

Your tasks will include:

- Being the point of contact for artists, their crew, volunteers and technicians
- Preparing the venue for the show
- Responsibility for fire safety, volunteers on shift, artists and guests in coordination with security guards
- Briefing and debriefing of artists, volunteers, guards and technicians
- Ensuring a positive and safe environment for the audience and crew
- Write evaluation reports from the evening
- Closing the venue

We're looking for someone who:

- Has great social skills
- Is passionate about community building
- Has venue experience (advantage but not a demand)
- Is focused and eager to learn about concert production
- Has a great sense of overview
- Has clear and motivational communication skills
- Is good at managing ad hoc tasks
- Is calm under pressure and able to multitask
- Has a strong passion for music and live events
- Speaks and writes English fluently
- Takes responsibility and enjoys working with a diverse team
- Has passion for music and people who are passionate about music

Working Hours and Conditions

- Working hours are mostly in the afternoons and evenings, typically between 14:00 and 03:00 (varies), although on a few occasions, it can be later.
- You will be scheduled for 1–3 shifts per month, with the possibility of more shifts in the future.
- Occasional participation in meetings.
- During the off-season, the role includes light planning and administrative tasks.
- The position is paid at a fixed hourly rate.
