

Associate Principal Bass - Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra

Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra are seeking an Associate Principal Bass.

- You have outstanding musical and artistic abilities.
- You have good cooperation and ensemble skills.
- You lead musically when needed.

As a member of the bass section, you contribute with your high musical standards and strong ensemble skills. As Associate Principal you usually sit in the 2nd or 3rd chair, but may also step into the principal position when needed. You provide solid support to both the Principal and the Assistant Principal, and you can take over their roles if necessary.

In addition to your musical responsibilities, you hold a special responsibility for the group in the absence of the Principal and the Assistant Principal. You participate in the distribution of stage duties and stay informed about potential substitutes. You work to ensure that the group performs at its best.

Salary

The salary for the position is regulated by the collective agreement between Creo - the union for arts and culture and Musikkelskapet Harmonien, and will depend on seniority.

Min. NOK 765.410 per annum.

As a member of our orchestra, you will be eligible for benefits under the Norwegian National Insurance Scheme (Folketrygden), which provides financial support for residents including cash benefits for illness/disability, family support, pensions and healthcare coverage.

How to apply

To apply, please complete the linked application form adding a link to the pre-qualification round video. A jury will consider the applications once the deadline has passed. The video round should be considered as a first round, and only highly qualified candidates will be invited to audition
