Crossover Frequencies is an independent music agency working internationally with artist booking, touring and concert curation. We are looking for a freelance bookkeeper/accounting assistant.

I will handle invoice registration in Dinero and need someone to take care of bank reconciliations, bookkeeping checks, VAT reporting and general financial overview.

Experience with Danish accounting procedures and Dinero (or similar software) is preferred.

Interested? Please send me an email with a short introduction, relevant experience and your rates.

Please note: I am travelling until 11 November, so please contact me by email rather than phone before then.

Crossover Frequencies is an independent music agency working internationally with artist booking, touring and concert curation. We are looking for a freelance bookkeeper/accounting assistant.

I will take care of registering incoming and outgoing invoices in Dinero. I am looking for someone to handle the ongoing financial overview, bank reconciliations, bookkeeping checks and necessary accounting reports, as well as ensuring that everything is in order for VAT declarations and annual accounts.

What I'm looking for:

Experience with Danish bookkeeping and accounting procedures.

Familiarity with Dinero (or similar accounting software).

Ability to handle VAT reporting, account reconciliations and financial overviews.

A structured and reliable person who can work independently.

This is a freelance assignment with flexible working hours and an expected limited workload, to be agreed upon.

If you are interested, please send me an email with a short introduction, relevant experience and an indication of your rates.

Please note: I am travelling until 11 November, so I kindly ask you not to call before then. Email enquiries are very welcome, and I will get back to you as soon as possible.
