

Experienced interactive/digital designer

We are looking for a new member for our exclusive design band, who can help deliver our client's digital brands and products.

Job description

We are looking for a new member for our exclusive design band, who can help deliver our client's digital brands and products.

We offer a flexible position with room and expectations for highly professional craftsmanship.

You will work closely with a strong and multidisciplinary design team.

You will be part of a small solid agency that is developing strongly.

Your role

You will be part of a team where everyone values and cultivates the craft in all projects.

You will be involved in developing brand and digital concepts, and have a primary executive role on all digital tasks.

You will be primarily responsible for the maintenance and further development of existing digital projects.

You will be in direct contact with our customers and the primary contact with our regular technical partners.

You will have the opportunity to influence and develop our digital services.

The essentials

You are visually and conceptually strong, based on solid design principles.

You have a natural understanding of user needs and behavior – and your work reflects this.

You can work with both smaller design solutions and larger digital design systems.

You are a fluent Figma user.

You are curious and stay professionally up to date.

You can finalize projects – as in done-done. And you know what that means.

You are, at least, as nice as us.

What we dream of

You have experience and knowledge of basic UX principles.

You can swap freely between different digital disciplines.

You take pride in the fact that projects are delivered pixel perfect, clear and well-crafted.

You want to be part of our team, and think you can help lift our work to new heights.
