

Are you a true creative wizard? Then we might be looking for you...

Deloitte drives progress. Deloitte offers global integrated professional services that include Audit & Assurance, Consulting, Financial Advisory, Risk Advisory and Tax Consulting. Our approach combines intellectual leadership, industrial expertise, insight, consulting and problem-solving capabilities whatever the role, technology revolutions and innovation from multiple disciplines to help our clients excel anywhere in the world. Deloitte invests in outstanding people of diverse talents and backgrounds and empowers them to achieve more than they could elsewhere. Our work combines advice with action and integrity. We believe that when our clients and society are stronger, so are we.

We are looking for an experienced Creative Designer who can apply graphical skillset as well as creative and innovative mindset to give our potential clients a "WOW"-feeling when they receive our pursuit materials. You will be a part of our newly established Pursuit Centre of Excellence in the Nordics. You will work in close collaboration with the Pursuit Coach, Project Lead and Content Writer, and you will be responsible for the visual identity and strategy for each pursuit.

The Creative Designer designs and develops all visual elements of client proposals, presentations and related business development materials across multiple media. You excel in connecting the dots between written content and visual output. The overall aim is to create state of the art pursuit materials and demonstrate Deloitte's true differentiators while driving a high win rate on key opportunities.

This opportunity will require travel.

Exciting tasks await you

- Opportunity to ‘think outside the box’ and challenge yourself to innovate
- Strategically interface and brainstorm with senior partners regarding the visual display of information; ability to grasp the substance of business issues being communicated and then re-articulate visual options that enhance/clarify audience understanding
- Design, format and layout proposals and related materials (print and digital) to enhance readability, draw the reader into the content and distinguish Deloitte in the marketplace
- Effectively guide pursuit teams and other pursuit management professionals on effective visual presentation and style
- Exercise judgment and project management skills to balance priorities and communicate with teams to meet project deadlines and commitments; keep internal clients informed of projects and progress
- Demonstrate leadership and teamwork through active participation in coordinating deliverables in time-sensitive situations in collaboration with pursuit managers, editors, client service teams and regional resources
- Capture new media needs and scope required services as needed
- Demonstrate outstanding attention to detail and quality under challenging deadlines.

You have the following skills and experience

- Minimum 7 years of related work experience in marketing, communication or business development preferred
- Bachelor's degree in graphic design or a related field
- Proficient in MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint; Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and Illustrator
- Willingness and ability to create an elegant, designed “feel” in programmes such as PPT and Word that were not written primarily as design vehicles
- Proven skills and educational training in typography, layout, composition, colour theory and information design
- Speed and agility - ability to work efficiently and effectively under pressure, developing creative design within tight deadlines
- Experience working with teams in a professional services or large matrixed organisation is a plus
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

- Professional client service manner and ability to interact with all levels of management
- Proficiency with project management skills and methodologies
- Demonstrated ability to manage complex projects and synthesise direction from many individuals
- Self-starter with strong work ethic and ability to manage own time and take initiative.
