

Associate Concertmaster - Residentie Orkest The Hague

The position

As associate concertmaster, you will be partially responsible for realising the orchestra's artistic ambitions and you'll readily be able to motivate and inspire your colleagues. You will also be a point of contact for them. You will support the concertmaster in the performance of his work and will also be comfortable in occupying the first chair. You will also be adaptable for educational and ensemble activities.

Requirements for the position

It goes without saying that a prerequisite for this position is for you to be a distinguished and experienced violinist. We ask for an open attitude towards authentic performance styles as well as contemporary music. We consider it essential that each of our players is an ambassador for our orchestra, and that they will collaborate in educational activities and ensemble work in addition to the stage performance. You will be a positive and engaged team player with attributes of flexibility and diplomacy.
