Do you want to use your creative wizardry to give life to our visual elements through animations? Do you dream of creating impact by working for a company that fights for financial gender equality? Come join us! We are looking for a creative and visionary, badass animator to join our Content Team.

We are a fast-growing and well-funded startup with a clear mission: Closing the financial gender gap. We do this by educating women and non-binary people through our subscription based learning (and soon trading) platform. We currently have paying members in 70+ countries, and we are continuously expanding to new markets.

About the role

Content is at the core of everything we do. We are looking for a skilled animator who can help us produce amazing and engaging creatives that will take our content to the next level.

You will use your creativity and vision to come up with exciting animated content ideas and produce engaging creatives that will help us maintain a strong connection to our community. In close collaboration with our Brand Manager, Art Director and Videographers you will produce content related to female empowerment, personal finance and investing.

The perfect candidate is creative, detail oriented, energetic and mission driven (being a member of Female Invest also doesn't hurt ;) ) It's a plus if you already have an interest in investing, but it is not a requirement.

Responsibilities:

- Creating and editing engaging animated & still content for a large variety of platforms (social media, email, website)
- Ensure all animation is on-brand and reflects our visual identity
- Brainstorming with the team on new, exciting initiatives for social media campaigns and learning content
- Monitoring the digital landscape and staying up to date with relevant SoMe trends
- Proactively adjusting to trends and forecasting what's 'the next big thing'

Your profile

- You have in-depth work experience with animation and editing
- You are visually oriented and have a natural flair and interest in exploring different options
- You are creative, full of energy and motivated
- You are interested in female empowerment and keen to learn about personal finance and investing
- You are constantly on the pulse of what's trending on social media

Employee benefits:

When we grow, you grow with us - to support this mindset, we offer: competitive salary, pension scheme, health insurance, warrant program, flexible working hours, paid vacation, regular team events and social gatherings, an opportunity to work with a highly talented and driven team on an important social mission.

- The position is a full-time occupation (37 hours a week) in our office in Copenhagen or in London
- Selected candidates will be contacted continuously.
