

Solo trombone

Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra is looking for a dedicated solo trombone.

You have:

- Outstanding musical and artistic abilities.
- Good cooperation and ensemble skills.
- Good leadership skills, socially and artistically.

The orchestra has two equal solo trombonists, who both have an obligation to play tutti. You will take part in distributing orchestral duties and keep updated on potential substitutes to the orchestra. The group leader responsibilities are distributed in agreement with the group, and together with the other solo trombonist you connect the group, section, conductor and administration, and are dedicated to making everyone in the group as good as possible.

The solo trombone also has an obligation to play alto trombone.

Salary:

The salary for the position is regulated by the collective agreement between CREO - the union for arts and culture and Musikkelskapet Harmonien, and will depend on seniority. Min. NOK 668,040.

As a member of our orchestra, you will be eligible for benefits under the Norwegian National Insurance Scheme (Folketrygden), which provides financial support for residents including cash benefits for illness/disability, family support, pensions and healthcare coverage.
