

Tutti 1st Violin

Vacancy

The Northern Netherlands Orchestra (NNO) is a versatile, leading symphony orchestra that explores new paths in a wide range of programs.

The NNO is the orchestra of the three northern provinces in The Netherlands and has Groningen as its location. The orchestra performs in concert halls in the Northern region, at outdoor events, schools and other locations. The NNO furthermore regularly performs at venues like the Concertgebouw Amsterdam and TivoliVredenburg in Utrecht.

As from season 22/23 Eivind Gullberg Jensen is our Chief Conductor. Principal Guest Conductors are Hartmut Haenchen and Antony Hermus. Michel Tabachnik holds the position of Conductor Emeritus.

The NNO currently comprises of 75 musicians.

The NNO brings symphonic music to diverse audiences. We therefore value diversity in the orchestral workplace. For more information please visit www.nno.nu
