

ProPace Aarhus International Choir is searching for new conductor

If you love music and are open to work with people of different backgrounds from all over the world, it might be you, who we are looking for.

You don't need to be educated as a conductor, or have prior experience leading the choir. We are looking for a person, who is able to lead warm-ups, teach the songs. Thus said, you need to have certain experience as a musician. Verbal communication is English. Advantage if you know how to arrange music or simply enjoy creating harmonies for 2-3 voices. Also advantage if you play piano.

Our choir gathers people on very different musical levels, also those who never sang before.

We sing in different languages and it is very important for us to have fun, while we are learning new songs.

We are an open, energetic group, therefore we are searching for a person who would be a good match to us - also open and having the amount of energy and social skills necessary to work with a group of amateurs.

What we can offer is exclusive experience with working in a multicultural environment, leadership development, social gatherings at least once a month, and symbolic honorarium.
