

Cello tutti - Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester

One permanent position as Cello tutti is available at Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester.

Additional notes

Applicants must have either master of fine arts or equivalent professional work experience as a cellist.

Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester is in an exciting new phase with Maxime Pascal as new chief conductor from season 2024-25 and Katrine Ganer Skaug as Managing and Artistic Director from 2022.

Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester forms an elegant and versatile orchestra with a flair for unique programming and a big heart for their audience. The orchestra has a proud history with longlasting collaborations with chief conductors such as Okko Kamu, Hannu Lintu, Andrew Manze and Stefan Solyom.

Employment is subject to confirmation of residence and work permit in Sweden. Extensive public health care system as well as instrument insurance by employer.

City of Helsingborg is beautifully situated by the coast, facing Danish city of Elsinore, where the frequent ferries take you in just 20 minutes. Combined train station and ferry terminal is just an 8 minute-walk from Helsingborg Konserthus, home of Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester, Helsingborg Konserthus is an architectural pearl with famed acoustics. Helsingborgs Konserthus and Symfoniorkester is part of Helsingborg Arena och Scen AB, which also include Helsingborg City Theatre, Castle of Sofiero and Arena of Helsingborg.

City of Helsingborg is within Greater Copenhagen Region, a region with strong democratic traditions, world-class work life-balance, fresh water and air, stunning nature and vibrant cities. No wonder Sweden is top ranked in quality of life.

Indrykningsdato

17.12.2023

Ansøgningsfrist

26.02.2024

Virksomhedsnavn

Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester

Fagområde

Musik / Sang / Lyd

Navn på kontaktperson

Helsingborgs Symfoniorkester

Søgstilling

<https://www.muvac.com/en/vacancy/helsingborgs-symfoniorkester-31m7p981>