She Post Production is currently seeking a retoucher to fill in for a maternity leave from August 2024 until March 2025, with potential for continued collaboration afterward.. Additionally, we are also looking for freelance retouchers to join our network in Copenhagen.

Established in 2020, She Post Production specialises in stills and motion, emphasising high-quality image and video editing.

As a retoucher at She Post Production, you'll be involved in various retouching projects, spanning both commercial and editorial work. Your responsibilities will involve collaborating with the team on retouching tasks and managing your own projects under our guidance and communicating with customers.

As a freelancer, you have your own setup and equipment, but you can also utilize a desk with Ezio and Wacom available in our office during projects.

We're seeking individuals with a passion for technology and artistry, possessing a proactive mindset and a sharp eye for detail. Problem-solving skills and the ability to meet deadlines are crucial. Proficiency in Adobe Photoshop is necessary, and a basic understanding of Capture One is favoured. Flexibility in working hours is valued, and proficiency in English is required, with Danish proficiency preferred but not mandatory.
